PAUL ROBSON
General Manager/Directeur

Paul Robson has roots that reach deep into Canadian football turf, through managing, coaching and playing. They go even deeper, in fact: as a kid in Winnipeg, he sold peanuts and popcorn to the crowd so that he could watch the Blue Bombers' games for nothing.

Years later, that astute business sense was to pay dividends both for Paul and the Blue Bombers. Taking over as general manager late in 1982 after five years as assistant GM and, before that, nine years as a player, his judgement and leadership style improved the community-owned Bombers' stability on and off the field.

With Paul as General Manager of the Blue Bombers, the coaching staff accumulated a 44-21-1 record, made the playoffs every year, and in 1984 won the Grey Cup for the first time in 22 years.

In January of 1987, Paul Robson moved from his home-town of Winnipeg to take on the challenging position as General Manager of the Ottawa Rough Riders. The Ottawa franchise, strong in tradition, had selected Paul for his sound business and football background and also for his keen sense of community pride.

Since his arrival in the nation's capital, Paul Robson's open-door policy has kept him in touch with the people of Ottawa and the surrounding area.

Natif de Winnipeg, Paul Robson est impliqué dans le monde du football depuis un très jeune âge.

Comme gamin il vendait des friandises aux parties des Blue Bombers pour qu'il puisse y assister gratuitement.

Quelques années plus tard, son sens des affaires naturelles et son expérience comme ancien joueur lui permettait de connaître plusieurs bonnes saisons comme directeur des Blue Bombers. En 1984, cette équipe remporta la coupe Grey.

Paul a également porté les couleurs des Bombers pendant quelques saisons aprés une belle carrière collégiale à l'Université North Dakota.

Avec les Riders depuis janvier 1987, Paul a démontré ses grands talents d'homme d'affaires en plus de faire preuve de ses connaissances du football canadien et sa fierté dans la communauté.

FRED GLICK
Head Coach/Entraîneur-chef

The Aurora, Colorado, native came to the Rough Riders as Head Coach in '87 after four years as assistant coach with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers and a colourful football career that began as a quarterback and defensive back at Colorado State University in the '50s. Fred is entering his sixth year of coaching in the CFL.

After an outstanding college career, Fred turned pro in 1959 with the old Chicago Cardinals of the NFL. That same year he played for the Cardinals against the Toronto Argonauts in the last exhibition game between the NFL and the CFL.

Fred followed the Cardinals to St. Louis in 1960 and the following year moved to the Houston Oilers of the American Football League.

He made his professional coaching debut with the St. Louis Cardinals as defensive secondary coach in 1978 under the legendary Bud Wilkinson. After two years with the Cardinals, he spent 1980 with the New Orleans Saints, in the same capacity. For two years (1981-82) he coached defensive backs with the New York Giants under Head Coach Ray Perkins.

Natif de Aurora au Colorado, Fred est à la barre des Riders depuis la saison 1987.

Il fut entraîneur-adjoint pendant quatre ans avec les Blue Bombers de Winnipeg et a également fait un travail similaire avec les Cards de St. Louis ('78-'79), les Saints de la Nouvelle-Orléans ('81) et les Giants de New York ('81-'82).

Comme joueur il a porté les couleurs des Cards de Chicago de la LNF et fut impliqué dans le dernier affrontement LNF-LCF en 1959 alors que Cards et les Argonauts de Toronto se sont retrouvé sur le même terrain.

Il a également joué pendant cinq ans avec les Oilers de Houston avant de commencé sa carrière d'entraîneur avec New Mexico State en 1968.

Fred et son épouse Marlene ont trois enfants, Greg, David et Kathy.

BOB SWIFT
Special Teams and Defensive Line Coach/ Coordonateur de la ligne defensive et des unites speciales

Bob Swift returns to the Riders coaching staff after spending the 1985 and 1986 seasons here as the offensive line coach.

Born in Shawinigan, Qué., Bob, 43, had many years of great football as a player before accepting the challenge of coaching the pros, in 1983, in Saskatchewan.

Drafted by the B.C. Lions in 1964, he rushed for 1,054 yards and 11 TDs leading the Lions to a Grey Cup. In 1966, he went to the Toronto Argonauts as a running back but switched in 1967 to the offensive guard position where he remained until moving to Winnipeg in 1970.

From 1970 until his retirement in 1977, he was the starting offensive centre for the Bombers. He was named All-Canadian from 1971 to 1974.

Bob was also the offensive line coach with the Western Riders in '83 and '84 and joined the Montreal Alouettes in a similar capacity in February 1987.

Bob est bien connu des amateurs de football canadien autant comme joueur que comme entraîneur. Né à Shawinigan au Québec, le 29 novembre, 1944, Bob a été repêché par les Lions de la Colombie-Britannique en 1964. Il a connu une saison de plus de 1,000 verges au sol avec les Lions les menants à la conquête de la coupe Grey.

En 1966, il passait aux Argonauts de Toronto et transférait la saison suivante sur la ligne à l'attaque. Comme joueur de centre, Bob connut ses plus belles années à Winnipeg qu'il joignit en 1971. De 1971 à 1974 il fut nommé sur l'équipe d'étoiles nationale.

Bob se retirait à la fin de la saison 1977. En 1983 il accepta un poste d'adjoint avec Saskatchewan. Il demeura avec les Riders en 1984 avant de déménager ses pénates chez les cousins de l'est, à Ottawa. En février 1987, il se retrouva à Montréal avec les Alouettes.

ARDELL WIEGANDT
Defensive Line/Ligne défensive

Ardell Wiegandt is known to the football fans. He was an assistant coach with the Concordes in 1982 and was in charge of the offensive line. Born in Lakota, North Dakota on June 28, 1940, Ardell was, until December 1986, an assistant coach with the NFL Buffalo Bills. He was working with the linebackers, while Joe Faragalli was supervising the work of the tight ends with the same Bills.

From 1977 to 1981, he was with the Calgary Stampeders of the CFL, and acted as head coach of the team the last two years. He came to Montréal in 1982, before moving to the University of Wyoming (1983-84) and the Buffalo Bills (1985-86).

Ardell Wiegandt est une figure connue puisqu'il était entraîneur adjoint avec les Concordes en 1982 et supervisait le travail de la ligne à l'attaque. Né à Lakota au North Dakota, le 28 juin 1940, il était jusqu'en décembre dernier entraîneur adjoint avec les Bills de Buffalo de la LNF. Il a donc travaillé tout au long de la saison 1986 avec Joe Faragalli qui était également avec les Bills.

De 1977 à 1981, il était avec les Stampeders de Calgary, occupant d'ailleurs le poste d'entraîneur-chef lors des deux dernières saisons. Après son séjour à Montréal, il prit en 1983 la direction de l'Université du Wyoming, avant de se joindre aux Bills de 1985.

PAL SARTORI
Offensive Coordinator, QB & Receiver Coach/ Coordonateur de l'offensive

Pal joined the Ottawa Rough Riders from Winnipeg in 1986, where for two seasons he handled the quarterbacks and receivers under Head Coach Cal Murphy. In 1984 he was a guest training camp coach for the Blue Bombers. Pal is entering into his fourth year of coaching in the CFL.

During the 1982-83 seasons Sartori was a Graduate Assistant Coach responsible for the wide receivers at Idaho State University, having previously coached as a graduate assistant at Idaho in 1975-76.

Before going to Winnipeg, Pal, a native of Chicago, was the offensive coordinator at San Francisco State University for two years (1983-84). In 1984, he was also assistant coach in charge of the offensive line in the East-West Shrine Classic All-Star Game.

Pal commence sa deuxième saison avec les Rough Riders après avoir débuté sa carrière d'entraîneur-adjoint, en 1985, à Winnipeg.

Il a également été coordonateur de l'offensive à San Francisco State en 1983 et 1984 et l'intructeur des receveurs à Idaho State en 1982 et 1983.

LARRYE WEAVER
Defensive Secondary/Secondeurs

The Monte Vista, Colorado, native made his coaching debut in 1964 with North Dakota State, where he handled the defensive secondary for two seasons. After spells at Arizona (where his successor was Fred Glick) and UCLA, he joined Tommy Prothro and the Los Angeles Rams as the defensive coordinator in 1971. Two years later he moved on to the New England Patriots under Chuck Fairbanks, and remained with them until 1976.

From 1977 to 1980 he coached the San Diego Chargers defensive secondary and in 1981 and '82 was the Chargers' offensive coordinator. His offense set NFL records in '81 for total net yards (6,744) and passing yards (4,873).

Larrye spent a year as offensive coordinator with the Cleveland Browns under Sam Rutigliano before ill health forced him to leave football coaching.

Larrye a connu ses meilleurs moments comme entraîneur lorsqu'il était le coordonateur de l'offensive des Chargers de San Diego en 1981 et 1982. Cette équipe a établit plusieurs marques en 1981 dont le plus de verges par la voie des airs (4,873) et le plus de verges totale pour l'offensive (6,744).

De plus, Larrye fut coordonateur de l'offensive pour les Rams de Los Angeles en '71 et '72 et des Patriots de la Nouvelle-Angleterre de '73 à '76. Il passa six saisons à San Diego, les quatre première comme coordonateur de l'offensive.

Larrye commence sa 22ème saison comme instructeur et sa deuxième avec les Riders.

BOB WEBER
Offensive Line Coach/
Coordonateur de la ligne offensive

Bob took over the Riders' offensive line in '87 after an outstanding career as a player and coach at both the college and professional level. He played for the Edmonton Eskimos in 1957 as a linebacker and centre, and began his professional coaching career as offensive line coach with the Montreal Alouettes in 1966. Bob is entering his second stint of coaching in the CFL. The Fort Collins, Colorado, native is a graduate of Colorado State University, where he starred as centre and linebacker in the early '50s.

The years 1964 and '65 found him at Colorado State University as freshman coach and defensive line coach. After a year of professional coaching with the Montreal Alouettes, in 1966, under Darrell Mudra, he followed Mudra to the University of Arizona as offensive line coach and two years later took over the head coaching job.

FRANK CLAIR
Special Advisor for Scouting and Public Relations/ Conseiller spécial pour le recrutement et les relations publiques

Affectionately known throughout football as The Professor, Frank commands a special place in the hearts of Riders' fans. With good reason, too. During his 14 years as head coach, the Riders never failed to make post-season play, winning the Grey Cup in 1960, 1968 and 1969.

In 1970 he moved to the GM's office, and under his guidance the Riders won the Grey Cup in 1973 and again in 1976. Replaced by Jake Dunlap after the 1978 season, he served as vice-president in charge of player personnel for three years, leaving to become head scout of the Toronto Argonauts.

Toronto was also the one-time Washington Redskin tight-end's first CFL club. In his first year as head coach, he led the Double Blue to the Grey Cup, where they beat Frank Larson's Winnipeg Blue Bombers 13-0. Two years later, the Professor and his Argos repeated the triumph.

Throughout the 1988 season, fans in the Ottawa area will have the opportunity of seeing the football legend at local events. Frank Clair, in addition to his football responsibilities will bring the great football tradition, that Ottawa has known, back to the people of the community.

Pendant ses 14 années à la barre des Rough Riders, de 1956 à 1969 Frank n'a jamais raté les éliminatoires.

Sous sa tutelle les Riders ont remporté la coupe Grey à trois reprises, soit en 1960, '68 et '69. Comme directeur-gérant des Riders de 1970 à 1978 il célébra deux autres conquêtes de la coupe Grey en 1973 et 1976.

Avant de se joindre aux Riders il avait déjà remporté deux championnats avec les Argos de Toronto comme instructeur-chef.

En 1988, les partisans des Riders pourront rencontrer Frank à plusieurs évènements promotionnel.

WAYNE GIARDINO
Director of Operations and Scouting/ Directeur des opérations et de recrutement

Wayne was considered one of the best outside linebackers in the CFL. He played 113 games for the Riders between 1967 and 1975, both as a linebacker and fullback, and still holds the CFL record for return yards on fumbles (234).

Returning to the Riders in 1983 in the player personnel job, he took over as defensive coach in 1984. In 1986, when Tom Dimitroff was elevated to head coach, Wayne replaced him as Director of Player Personnel.

In his new position, Wayne will oversee day-to-day operaions, working in conjunction with the coaching staff and front office management when the GM is not available, and will be responsible for the scouting system in Canada and the U.S.

Wayne a porté les couleurs des Rough Riders de 1967 à 1975 et fut considéré comme un des meilleurs secondeurs de la LCF. Il a participé à 113 rencontres et détient toujours le record pour le nombre de verges sur des retours d'échappés (234).

Il est revenu avec les Riders en 1983 et à remplacé Tom Dimitroff comme directeur des opérations et du recrutement en 1986.

MIKE SALLY
Director of Corporate Marketing/Directeur du marketing

As Director of Marketing and Sales, Mike's role is to supervise and monitor the Riders' corporate marketing strategy.

Mike's portfolio will include obtaining corporate game sponsors, enhancing the corporate game sponsorship program and maintaining contact with all the sponsors and suppliers to enrich the corporate program.

Mike has worked for radio stations in Halifax and Ottawa, but his first love has always been football. Born and raised in the capital, he served for three years as vice-president and general manager of the Ottawa Sooners.

Natif d'Ottawa, Mike fut directeur-gérant des Sooners d'Ottawa pendant trois saisons. Il a également été un annonceur pour des postes de radio à Ottawa et à Halifax.

Avec les Riders, Mike s'occupera d'obtenir des commanditaires pour les Rough Riders en plus de créer des stratégies de marketing pour enrichir le programme corporatif.

JIM REMPEL
Equipment Manager/Gérant de l'équipement

As the Rough Riders' full-time equipment manager, Jim's responsibilities include purchasing and maintaining equipment, upkeep of the players' and coaches' building, and developing an enjoyable atmosphere for the players.

He has already demonstrated he has versatility for the job: in seven years with the Winnipeg Football Club, he was involved with various promotional and on-field activities, and was a key figure in designing and building the famous Blue Bomber Airplane, displayed at Winnipeg home games. Jim also assisted Gordon Bunke in hosting the Ottawa's press box throughout the 1986 season.

Jim a travaillé pendant sept ans avec les Blue Bombers de Winnipeg avant de se joindre aux Riders en 1986.

En charge de l'édifice des joueurs et des instructeurs, Jim devra, en plus, acheter et maintenir l'équipement et assurer un atmosphère de travail comfortable pour les joueurs.

DAVE REICHELT

The 1988 season will mark Dave's second year as Athletic Therapist for the Ottawa Rough Riders. Throughout the 1986 and '85 seasons and for part of '84, Dave was with the Calgary Stampeders on a seasonal basis as their assistant athletic therapist.

He first joined the Stampeders for their training camp in 1984, remaining with them until his return to the Calgary Wranglers Hockey club of the Western Junior A League in August of 1984, as their head therapist. He was with the Wranglers for the 1983-84 and 1984-85 seasons.

Since graduating from Sheridan College in 1983, Dave has had experience in many sport environments including the 1983 World University Games, and York University.

* In 1909, Earl Grey, the Governor-Genaral Of Canada, donated a trophy for the Rugby Football Championship of Canada. The trophy, which subsequently became known as The Grey Cup, was originally open to competition only for teams which were registered with the Canada Rugby Union. Since 1954 only the nine teams of the C.F.L. have challenged for the Grey Cup.
